(d) No. Only six houses are damaged as the persons have left their houses and migrated to nearby villages, as they are stated to be landless.

(e) The B.D.O. has been instructed to persuade the persons who have left these six houses to return, to effect necessary repairs and settle in the colony by giving them financial assistance, if necessary. If however they refuse, to give these houses to other Iruliga persons who desire to settle in these houses by taking appropriate action in the matter. Possibility of securing lands to these families in the adjoining forest areas is also being explored.
